"THE DOUBLE X"

A UNIVERSAL TWO REEL WESTERN

STARRING BILLY SULLIVAN

DIRECTED BY ERNST LAEMMLE

Discovering that his nephew is the sole heir to his brother's fortune the town banker plots to have his nephew married before ten the next day, so as to inherit the wealth. A financially embarrassed circus man tries to get a thousand dollar loan from the banker to get out of town. The banker offers five times as much if he will help him get his nephew married. One of the girls of the circus was rescued by the nephew earlier in the day, and the circus man plots with her. His rough riders break in on a house party and abduct the girl. The nephew battles them, and after a hard ride, rescues her. The two find themselves alone in his cabin. He mounts guard while she sleeps. The following day the circus man appears with a preacher. Afterward, they dash to hear the will read. The girl interrupts the lawyer by telling them that it is all a frame up. The nephew gets the fortune, pushes them all out, and makes love to her. She accepts him.
